

The Stranger in the Photo...Went to Moeller? Peer Review

Mr. Eble, AP Language and Composition

Please conduct a Peer Review session for another student's first draft of this essay. You should complete this just like any other Writing Center consultation:

- Sit side-to-side
- Have the writer read his paper and make all comments
- Utilize Socratic questioning in order to review the essay
- Complete a consultation form (this document) and send it to your partner.

Reviewer's Name: _____ Writer's Name: _____

On what areas does the writer want to focus during the consultation? (Please list at least two-three)

Describe the content of the consultation—what suggestions did you make for the writer?

--

Please email this work to the writer, who should complete page two.

Action Plan: What steps do you need to take to revise your writing? Explain specifics below.

Wordle Analysis: Go to <http://www.wordle.net/>; click on “Create your own.” Then, copy and paste your essay into the word cloud creator.

After you’ve done so, please copy the word cloud below. You can either capture a screen shot or find another clever way to copy and paste this image.

Below the Wordle image, please reflect upon what this says about your diction:

- What words are prominent? Besides the obvious fact that you used them the most, why do you think they are the most prominent?
- What surprising trends do you notice about your diction?
- Any other revelatory information this Wordle reveals? Explain.

Please dropbox this form for your own paper when you’re finished.
